3. Respondent's Legal and Financial Status

Respondent objects to providing financial information at this time, because such information bears no logical relationship to the purpose of the request served upon Respondent. It is also Respondent's understanding that a request for such voluminous confidential financial information at this initial information request stage is inappropriate, and in direct conflict with U.S. EPA's own policy and guidance for issuance of CERCLA, Section 104(e) information requests. See U. S. EPA-OECA: "Transmittal of Sample Documents for More Effective Communication in CERCLA Section 104(e)(2) Information Requests," (June 30, 1995) ("a request for financial information should be contained in the general notice letter"). Respondent has gathered, and will preserve such information for future disclosure, should the same ever become relevant to any lawful inquiry by EPA or another agency.

Respondent provides the following information in response to Paragraph 3. under a claim of business confidentiality for all information. Accordingly, these answers are on a separate sheet attached as Appendix B and are marked "Company Confidential."
